Project Title: Tribunal reform in Northern Ireland: A scoping study and tribunal user's views

Amount awarded: £40,000

Project Summary:

The project will aim to undertake a scoping study of the current position on tribunals in Northern Ireland to provide a practical agenda for tribunal reform. In addition, to conduct a qualitative study of the views of social security and industrial tribunal appellants and other key stakeholders in Northern Ireland. To launch both research papers at a conference jointly held with the Appeals Service for Northern Ireland in early 2010.
