

Every second counts

How far away can you get in one hour?

This is a race against time.

Your starting-point is the classroom.

Describe your route from the classroom door.

Give reasons for your choice.

How far would you get?

