

Young people's subject choice: influences and impact Programme

- 10.00 Registration, tea and coffee
Served in the Dining Room
- 10.30 Welcome and introduction
Josh Hillman, Director of Education, Nuffield Foundation; and Anna Vignoles, Professor of Education, University of Cambridge and Trustee, Nuffield Foundation (chair)
- 10.40 Presentation: Socio-economic status and subject choice at 14: do they interact to affect university access?
Jake Anders, Senior Research Fellow in Education, Evaluation and Inequality, UCL Institute of Education
- 11:15 Presentation: What can we learn from twin studies about subject and other study choices?
Kathryn Asbury, Senior Lecturer and Programme Leader for the MSc Psychology in Education, University of York
- 11.35 Refreshments
- 11.50 Presentation: Does providing young people with information about future earnings influence post-16 subject choices?
Peter Davies, Professor of Education, University of Birmingham
- 12.10 Panel responses to research
Chair: Professor Anna Vignoles
Panel Members: The Rt Hon. David Laws, Dr Paul Newton and Professor Cristina Iannelli
- 12:35 Discussion session
Facilitated by Professor Anna Vignoles
- 13:05 Next steps
Looking forward with the Nuffield Foundation
- 13:15 Lunch
Served in the Dining Room